

New Continuing Education Program for Underwriting Professionals!

We are pleased to announce the launch of a Continuing Education (CE) program for underwriting professionals. The new program is the result of some extensive collaboration with representatives from AHOU, ALU and CIU and will become the gold standard for the underwriting profession.

Current webinar can be counted!
Visit alu-web.com for more information.

Program Overview

- To kick start certification of our profession, the first certification cycle (in 2021) will be for one year with 20 CE credits needed for certification.
- Two-year certification cycle starts in January 2022, with 50 CE Credits needed over 2 years.
- Acceptable subject matter for earning CE credits include job-related technical, leadership and business specific content. Refer to 'Continuing Education (CE) Program Credits' document below for more information.
- There is no cost to individual underwriters or their companies. Refer to program FAQ's for answers to this and other questions about the program.
- Individual underwriters will be responsible for documenting and recording their CE activities through the ALU Website. The tracking tool is under construction and will be available soon.
